Re: Clergy and Laymen Concerned
About Vietnam Conference
August 17-22, 1971
Ann Arbor, Michigan

Sources utilized herein are considered reliable inasmuch as each has furnished reliable information in the past.

Investigation in this matter is predicated upon information received July 7, 1971, from source one. Source one made available a pamphlet pertaining to a conference to be held at the University of Michigan (U-M), Ann Arbor, Michigan, August 17-22, 1971, entitled "Vietnam and America, from Bondage to Liberation," as sponsored by the Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam (CALCAV), 475 Riverside Drive, New York City, New York.

CALCAV is a publicly acclaimed group of clergy and laymen concerned about the Vietnam war.

On July 14, 1971, the "Ann Arbor News," a regularly published newspaper at Ann Arbor, on page 23, carried an article entitled "City Will Host Church Meeting About Vietnam." This article advised the conference to be held at Ann Arbor August 17-22, 1971, "is intended to increase church-related support for halting U. S. involvement in Southeast Asia."

~~BARBARA FULLER~~

The article revealed that Mrs. Russell Fuller, wife of Reverend Russell Fuller, director for the Interfaith Council for Peace at Ann Arbor, is involved in organizing for the conference with expected attendance of 500 persons. Persons attending will be housed in the U-M dormitories and conference meetings to be held at churches in Ann Arbor.

~~Mich.~~

The article continued that Reverend Richard P. Fernandez of New York City and national director of CALCAV, has stated the sessions will seek "a massive organizing campaign to end the war." Conference, according to the article, will include a number of training sessions to discuss the continuing growth of the military-industrial complex, war crimes, electoral politics, tax and draft resistance, and related topics.

The article continued that according to Mrs. Fuller, the conference will include Rabbi Balfour Brickner, executive of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations; Professor Harvey Cox of the Divinity School at Harvard University; Professor Charles West of Princeton Theological Seminary; and William Sloane Coffin, Chaplain at Yale University.

~~CAMBRIDGE MASS.~~

Sources two and three, on July 29, 1971, advised the conference is receiving very little publicity at U-M and Ann Arbor, but that they were both aware of the planned conference.

PURPOSE:

To recommend letter to all field offices alerting them to CALC involvement in the antiwar movement through its active support of Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) and instructing discreet preliminary investigation through established sources and informants only to determine extent of CALC activities and whether or not activities are controlled by subversive and/or violence-prone elements.

BACKGROUND:

CALC, headquartered in New York City, is a publicly acclaimed group of clergy and laymen concerned about the war in Vietnam. In the past, it has been active in antiwar activities and is currently an active participating organization in the PCPJ, which is heavily infiltrated by the Communist Party (CP), and the CP has indicated its desire to take over complete leadership of PCPJ.

Memorandum to Mr. C. D. Brennan
Re: Clergy and Laymen Concerned (CALC)
105-170160

During the massive April-May, 1971, antiwar action in Washington, D. C., [REDACTED] while working at PCPJ headquarters in Washington, was attempting to negotiate a large loan for PCPJ and indicated that the PCPJ would soon receive almost $1 million as the result of a bequest. The White House and Attorney General were previously advised of pertinent facts.

A source reported that between 5/28/71 and 7/21/71, the NCCC issued checks payable to CALC amounting to $370,000. The largest of those checks was issued on 7/21/71 for $302,000.

CALC sponsored a Citizens' Conference on Ending the War in Vietnam during March, 1971, in Paris, France. About 170 attended from the United States. North Vietnamese officials addressed the conference. Many of the United States group were antiwar activists. Upon return to the United States they were to voice their feelings concerning the war.

OBSERVATIONS:

The PCPJ, which played a major role during the April-May demonstrations in Washington, D. C., is the leading antiwar organization in the United States today. It is presently planning major antiwar demonstrations throughout the United States in October and November, 1971. Because of [REDACTED]

[redacted] CALC's active support of PCPJ, [redacted] statement that PCPJ would soon receive almost $1 million, CALC's receipt of substantial sums of money, and contacts with North Vietnamese officials by CALC adherents, it is necessary for us to discreetly determine extent of CALC's organization and influence in the antiwar movement, extent of its financial support of PCPJ, and whether any subversive influence exists in CALC.

ACTION:

Attached for approval is letter to all field offices instructing discreet preliminary investigation be conducted concerning CALC.

Re: Clergy and Laymen Concerned (CALC), aka,
105-170160

CALC was a sponsor of a Citizens' Conference on Ending the War in Vietnam during March, 1971, in Paris, France. About 170 attended from the United States. North Vietnamese officials addressed the conference. Many of the United States group were antiwar activists representing various United States peace groups. Upon returning to the United States, they were to voice their feelings and conclusions concerning the war. Results of this conference were furnished to most of the recipients in Philadelphia letterhead memorandum (LHM) dated 3/23/71 and captioned "Travel of U. S. Citizens to Paris, France, sponsored by Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam, American Friends Service Committee and Fellowship of Reconciliation - 3/3-10/71; IS - Information Concerning (Internal Security)."

Recipients should initiate survey to determine existence of CALC in your divisions. If organized CALC activities determined, conduct discreet preliminary investigation through established sources and informants only, to identify leaders, members, aims, objectives, and activities of the local organization. Specific determination should be made as to whether CALC is infiltrated, dominated, or controlled by basic revolutionary or other subversive and/or violence-prone elements. Recipients handle promptly and submit LHM containing positive results of preliminary investigation, along with recommendations for further action. New York (NY file 100-156667) is office of origin concerning CALC.

New York will continue to monitor NCCC and CALC bank accounts. In monitoring PCPJ bank account, WFO is instructed to continue its efforts to determine whether or not PCPJ is receiving financial support from CALC.

NOTE:

Re: Clergy and Laymen Concerned (C & LC) Conference,
University of Michigan

& [DE T-1] advised conference began with the deletion of the organization title words, "About Vietnam". Source advised conference so voted the above deletion in order to broaden their scope of concern to areas other than Vietnam. Source advised group now call themselves Clergy and Laymen Concern. Source advised, however, the name of Clergy and Laymen Concern was objected to by women participants who numbered approximately 50 percent of all participants. Source advised that a group of women objected that the name adopted by the group was sexist and should be changed to Clergy and Laity Concern. This source provided the following statement which he advised was subsequently submitted to the conference from the women's caucus:

STATEMENT OF THE WOMEN'S CAUCUS

We, the women's caucus of this conference, make the following observations as the first step in liberating ourselves from the bondage of sexism evident here:

1. The name "Clergy and Laymen Concerned" is sexist.
2. Structure
 - Decision-making is male-dominated.
 - All but two plenary speakers have been male.
 - Positions of leadership at the conference are predominantly male.
3. Child care was limited to
 - A Day Care center rather than cooperative effort
 - Only children ages 3 thru 10
 - Persons with transportation
 - Daytime hours, neglecting evening sessions
 - Those who could afford costly child care
4. Men at this conference through their language and attitudes have ignored or patronized women.

Regarding the above observations the women's caucus urges:

1. That the name "Clergy and Laymen Concerned" be changed initially to "Clergy and Laity Concerned." However, we are still disturbed by the distinction made between clergy and laity.
2. That CLC analyse its own structure regarding male/female representation and distribution of power and function on the Steering Committee, in the national office, and at the regional level.
3. That future conferences should provide an environment conducive to an experience of community with full participation for families as well as individuals. A conference site should be chosen that can offer:
 - Cooperative child care
 - Low-cost housing
 - Simple meals.
4. That men begin to see the interrelationship of sexism to other forms of oppression and that they stop putting women down.

125368

Re: Clergy and Laymen Concerned (C & LC) Conference,
University of Michigan

This same source advised, however, the objection of the women's caucus to the name adopted was overruled by the conference and the conference is now formally known as the Clergy and Laymen Concerned.

^u [DE T-1] advised August 18, 1971 conference continued August 17, 1971 with a speech by [redacted] Source advised [redacted] spoke concerning United States involvement in some 34 "invisible wars". Source advised [redacted] stated the United States is involved in Laos, Brazil, Pakistan and Guatemala besides Vietnam. [redacted] according to source, stated that invisible wars are possible because of a progressive destruction of accountability by government leaders, the erosion of democratic institutions, the conscience and manipulation of a mass of people and the "skirting" of democratic institutions in the United States such as news media and the United States Congress.

Source advised [redacted] during his speech appealed to the audience to begin forcing government to become accountable to the people of the United States. Source advised that [redacted] stated that if such required breaking the law then "let us break the law". Source continued that speech of [redacted] was followed by a speech of [redacted] Clergy and Laymen Concerned. Source advised that [redacted] stated conference would be attended by 500 persons from 41 states and that the theme of the conference was "From Bondage to Liberation". [redacted]

Source advised conference on August 12, 1971 terminated with a chant led by [redacted] Clergy and Laymen Concerned, New York. Source advised the following is a portion of the chant led by [redacted]

"Nixon is a liar,
Kissinger is a liar,
Kick them out,
Liberation,
Self determination,
Freedom now,
No more Vietnam,
No more poverty, we want peace."

Re: Clergy and Laymen Concerned (C & LC) Conference,
University of Michigan

On August 18, 1971, ⁴²DE T-1 advised that activities regarding the Clergy and Laymen Concerned Conference on August 18, 1971 included an announcement to the effect that [redacted] would speak to the delegates at the conference by trans-Atlantic telephone at 1:00 PM on Saturday, August 21, 1971. Source advised the announcement indicated [redacted] would give a brief address to the conference participants and that the address would be followed by a question and answer period at 1:00 PM on Saturday, August 21, 1971. This source advised that activities on August 18, 1971 were primarily contained to discussion groups of small numbers. Source advised that in addition to the small group discussions films were shown to conference participants at Dow Auditorium, University of Michigan. Source advised films shown were entitled, "Interview with My Lai Vets" and "New Winter Soldier" film. Source advised that during the afternoon August 18, 1971 he attended a small work group concerned with economic responsibility. Source advised that after much discussion the group for economic responsibility concluded that the five following items should be goals adopted and further distributed by the conference participants:

1. To put economic pressure upon the United States governmental and corporate system.
2. To re-order the nature of the American life style and economic system toward a non-predatory, more humanized existence.
3. To liberate and re-channel our resources, both mineral and personal, to meet human needs through the empower groups involved in social change.

Re: Clergy and Laymen Concerned (C & LC) Conference,
University of Michigan

4. To move the churches to a new level of commitment and risk taking for economic justice requiring the withdrawal from systems of violence and oppression and a more rightful sharing of their resources with the oppressed.

5. To free ourselves from present patterns of consumption, recognizing the diversity of circumstances and capacities which we bring to this effort.

Source advised that in order to bring about the above goals, the economic responsibility group concluded that as a preliminary step participants encourage people in their respective local areas to join a national effort on September 21, 1971 at which time people would spend no money for any goods or services. Source continued that group made additional plans to realize the above goals which included the institution of fruit buying cooperatives, collection and redistribution of re-cyclable gifts, holding social events with profit from such events going to local empowerment groups, selling of war related stocks and giving the money to war victims; persuasion of local merchants to participate in ads for peace newspaper campaigns, and so forth.

[This same source] advised on August 19, 1971 that he on that date attended a second workshop during which participants discussed the alleged deprivation of rights for persons incarcerated in prisons throughout the United States. Source advised the workshop group concluded that prisoners are entitled to every constitutional right exercised by the outside population except for those inherently inconsistent with the operation of the institution. He advised further the group concluded that the burden must be on the institution to show why it is necessary to deprive inmates of certain rights rather than on the inmates to show why they should not be deprived of them.

Re: Clergy and Laymen Concerned (C & LC) Conference,

Source continued the group concluded that since prisons are governmental institutions the public has a right to information about the operation of prisons and access to prisons. Further, that prisoners have the right to public scrutiny of prisons for the same reasons that the accused have a right to a public trial. Source advised the group adopted the following as being a Bill of Rights for prisoners:

1. Unrestricted access to the courts and to confidential legal counsel from an attorney of the individual's choosing or from a public defender. Adequate opportunity to prepare legal rits.

2. Freedom from the actuality or threat of physical abuse brought about by custodial personnel or other prisoners.

3. Adequate diet and sanitation, fresh air, exercise, prompt medical and dental care and prescription drugs.

4. Maintenance of relationships by frequent meetings and uncensored correspondence with members of the immediate family, personal friends, public officials and community representatives. Regular opportunity for conjugal visitation by the granting of home furloughs.

5. Reasonable access to the press, through both interview and written articles.

6. Freedom of voluntary religious worship and freedom to change religion.

7. Established rules of conduct available to prisoners in written form. No excessive or disproportionment punishment. Procedural due process in any disciplinary hearings which might result in loss of good time, punitive transfer or affect parole decision.

Re: Clergy and Laymen Concerned (CLC) Conference,

8. Uncensored reading materials.

9. Opportunity in prison through work release for work at prevailing wages, eligibility for social security, unemployment compensation and public assistance benefits upon release. Exclusive title to and control over all products of literary, artistic or personal craftsmanship produced on the prisoner's own time. Freedom from compulsion to work.

10. A judicial proceeding for determination of parole which incorporates full due process in the determination of sentence and parole date, including established rules of parole board conduct. Parole may be revoked only upon conviction of a crime and only after a judicial hearing.

11. Full restoration of all civil rights and privileges upon release from prison.

12. Unrestricted ability to petition for a redress of grievances. Freedom from reprisals felt for making complaint.

[Source one] advised on August 20, 1971 that on that date conference was addressed by [redacted]

[redacted] Source advised [redacted] spoke primarily of United States involvement in Vietnam and the revolution of Christianity. SUB-GROUP ON EDUCATIONAL COMPLICITY
CAMPAIGN ON INVISIBLE WARS

Education is a means of liberation, enabling individuals to develop critical appreciative, integrative, and communal values. When, instead, education fails to humanize and free people, when it manipulates and distorts them, it becomes an instrument of imperialism.

We intend to:

- (1) humanize religious education by making churchpeople informed of Third World cultures and liberation struggles, and
- (2) make Americans aware of their complicity in and responsibility for U.S. invasion of other countries militarily, commercially, and culturally to the detriment of these nations.

STRATEGIES:

- (1) CLC should promote monthly seminars to examine critically books on aspects of US imperialism, particularly in areas of on-going action. (bibliography provided thru American REPORT?)
- (2) CLC should develop informational pieces related to cultural and political liberation of Third World peoples in _____ and _____ (to be related to specific campaigns such as Bangla Desh and Brazil).
- (3) CLC should push socio-political analysis and political awareness pieces related to Third World liberation that could be used in adult education in religious bodies and peace movements.
- (4) CLC should develop monthly political posters related to such US intervention as military arms shipment, similar to the Vietnam casualty posters.

CAMPAIGN DEVELOPMENT REPORT
DRAFT REPEAL TASK GROUP

(Purpose: This document is submitted in two sections. Section One specifies action to be taken by national and local Clergy & Laymen Concerned to repeal the draft. Section Two outlines action to be taken by both local and national CMLC in confronting the continuing dilemmas of the Selective Service System if draft extension is realized. Both stages are to be implemented simultaneously.)

SECTION ONE - DRAFT REPEAL

I. Problem. The Administration is conscripting men, in violation of the American principle of individual liberty, to support United States imperial power especially in Vietnam, and for the manpower for potential future military engagement.

II. Action Goal. To end induction authority by the Fall, 1971, and to bring about repeal of the Selective Service Act including complete dismantling of Selective Service machinery by the 1972 elections.

III. Strategy

SWAGE ONE (August 23 to October, 1971)

General goal is to work on the Senate's sustaining a filibuster by opposing cloture, recommitting draft extension bill to committee, and opposing the bill if it comes to a vote.

AUGUST 23: CMLC Press Release against draft extension, tying the war to the draft, and calling for support of filibuster and recommitment. Also, emergency communications from CMLC to local groups and contacts to deluge Senators until September 6, with letters, phone calls, wires and visits at their homes as well as on official recess. Have a different delegation each day to talk with Senators. Include in visiting groups entire families, professional groups, etc.

AUGUST 23 TO SEPTEMBER 6: Encourage letters to editors, talk-shows, articles on local anti-draft activities, editorials, and other educational activities so Senators can view this type of activity while home.

SEPTEMBER 1 TO 15: CMLC set up standing committee on draft. Make an unadvised CMLC office at the Senate building for a session, and supporting grant assistance action.

AUGUST 25 TO SEPTEMBER 30: Organize 12 year olds to register 125376

Get repeal bills introduced into House and Senate. This may become a rider to military authorization bill, or similar related matter, which will probably be disposed before Congress adjourns for summer. Bills might include amnesty for men in exile as well as draft prisoners.

FEBRUARY - MARCH, 1972: Find anti-draft candidates, hopefully in every Congressional District, or help reop incumbents. Ask local groups to begin organizing local Democratic, Republican, and other party precinct meetings. Draft repeal resolutions and determine appropriate delegates to County and State conventions.

APRIL, 1972: Work on hearings on bills. Work on candidates and platforms for state and national party conventions. Keep up letters and visits to Congress by "grassroots". Visit Congressmen while home on Spring recess. Relate draft to tax protest. Advocate drafting incomes and profits.

MAY TO JULY: Shepherd repeal bill through hearings and floor fights. Call for floods of letters, wires, phone calls, and visits at most strategic times. (By summer, recess should see draft repeal passed.)

OCTOBER: Follow-up in November campaigns, if necessary, and lay the ground-work on getting the new Congress to repeal the draft in 1973.

SECTION TWO - CONFRONTATION OF CONTINUING SELECTIVE SERVICE INJUSTICES

The Problem: In preparation for the possible eventuality of Selective Service induction process being re-enacted, it is proposed that CALC staff make several preparations.

The Action:

(1) CALC adopts a policy statement of non-cooperation with the Selective Service System and explain reasons for these statements. Moreover, CALC is to explore how it expresses non-cooperation and the process by which men refuse cooperation.

(2) CALC develops a policy statement for broad use with national and local media and for distribution to national and local CALC offices as well as local anti-draft groups. The statement material is to include:

(a) An explanation why increasing acts of resistance is not only probable but currently encouraged by CALC.

non-registration, refusal of induction, leaving the country,

(2) Clearly stated rationale for clerical assistance in the field to support acts of resistance and the activities of national liberation movements on a scale of young people as well as the impact of United States military bases on the people of Latin American countries throughout the world. The growing impact of the military and the United States global policy in the military service did not have almost unlimited policy.

(3) CLIC will challenge clergyman everywhere to make clear the churches support of men who are conscientiously opposed to war.

(4) CLIC will publicly state its concern for the people who have made decisions of conscience because of the war. CLIC will support the people who are in the military and who are inside the country in prison. CLIC should continue to express belief in people who are in the military and in prison.

(5) CLIC will continue to work to make the people who are in the military and in prison aware of the people who are in the military and in prison.

(6) CLIC will continue to work to make the people who are in the military and in prison aware of the people who are in the military and in prison.

THE FALL OFFENSIVE

CLERGY AND LAYMEN CONCERNED

AND

PEOPLES COALITION FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE

The growing social crisis created by both the war in Indochina and the war at home make the fall offensive of the Peoples Coalition both an urgent need and a significant opportunity. The revelation of the Pentagon papers, the conciliatory 7 point peace offer of Mme. Binh, the government's "winding down the war" by combining troop withdrawal with an escalating air offensive, Nixon's diversionary China visit, the campaign against the poor thru FAP and unemployment, and the growth of domestic political repression are the ingredients of this crisis. The existence of unprecedented antiwar public opinion make the possibility of success for the Fall Offensive greater than ever before, in spite of the government's clear determination to wind down the movement rather than the war.

Consequently it is imperative that the movement involve new constituencies in all forms of tactics and activity especially in the use of non-violent direct action. The religious community thru CALC can make a unique contribution to giving direction and shape to this tactic, in particular, by drawing on the riches of its prophetic and spiritual tradition.

The program of the fall offensive neither competes with nor duplicates the CALC program, but rather would complement it and result in the mutual strengthening of both efforts. More than a few of the proposed campaigns explicitly refer to the Peoples Coalition. Others imply a close connection if not an identity of program (e.g. the campaign for Social Justice, Every Day Counts, Stop the Killing, Stop War Crimes-Celebrate Simplicity, and the Covenant of Peace.)

The calendar of the fall offensive provides the background against which these campaigns can be organized:

Sept. 8 - Anti FAP (Family Assistance Plan) demonstration with National Welfare Rights Organization

Oct. 13 - Moratorium on Business as usual

Oct 25-29 - Massive non-violent civil disobedience in Washington, D.C.

Nov. 6 - Regional marches and rallies

Accordingly, we affirm the importance of the fall offensive in ending the war abroad and at home. We also affirm the past participation of Clergy & Laymen Concerned in the Peoples Coalition. Finally, we pledge ourselves to work on the fall offensive and call upon the national and local staffs, steering committees, and chapters to work on its implementation.

WATKIN PROPOSAL FOR FALL OFFENSIVE

Oct. 13, 14 - ~~Oratorium~~ - People demonstrate in every town and city across the country. A popular outpouring of all people against the war, economy and repression. The tactics include all forms from mass marches to non violent direct action. Special emphasis will be put on gaining labor support. We feel that a true movement deals with all problems of the American system. i.e. the war, the economy, and repression. We feel that a strong Oratorium insures a strong fall offensive. i.e. Oct. '69, Nov '69.

Oct. 30, 31 - People start to move into movement centers throughout New York City. These days are seen as a time to get together. Affinity and constituency groups will consolidate information and finalize plans for Mondays action at the financial district. Regional representatives will meet to coordinate creative tactics.

Nov. 1 - Monday will be a day of reason. The People's Lobby idea will be consolidated into one day in one specified area. The financial district. Tactics to be used will include massive leafletting, signatures for the Peace Treaty, guerilla theatre, international consciousness raising brigades, teach-ins, one-to-one contact, and some en masse direct action. People move into financial district at morning rush hour (8:30-9:00) building towards a peak presence at lunch hour. Our job on Monday is seen as an educational process building to direct action Wednesday. We hope to expose the suffering of peoples in Viet Nam and other exploited countries in a new in depth way.

Nov. 2 - Election Day - Financial district closed. Today we deal with the problems that hit us at home. i.e. racism, sexism, repression, and exploitation. Most mobilizations "mouth" multi-issues, this mobilization will practise it. At 12 noon we gather at Foley Square, home of the Tombs, the courts, the Federal, state, and city office buildings, as well as Welfare and Social Security services. We will demand humane treatment of prisoners, justice in the courts, and a decent life for all. - At 5pm we gather at Madison Avenue to expose the American Culture, A culture built on sexism and consumerism. We will expose the plastic myths such as, women as property, deviation from the standard is bad, and that genocide in Viet Nam is good. After which time we will move onto Times Square to expose the blatant sexism and exploitation there.

Nov. 3 - A day of doing. We move en masse back to Wall St. to engage in non violent direct action, lifting up peaceful but firm voices that say, we must put an end to racism, sexism, imperialism and repression, and most of all, that the war must be brought to an end, through the most logical and humane way possible.

Nov.3 - and most of all, that the war must be brought to an end. And this should be accomplished through the most logical and human way possible. ~~Madame de Staël, etc.~~ Peace Plan. We see our greatest thrust centering around the Peace Treaty, the 7th proposal, and making Milton set the date.

We call for International Strikes at this time also. Student strikes and work stoppages to be coordinated throughout the world by all Progressive peoples. It will be made clear that our struggle is NOT with the workers of the financial district, but with the people who run the financial district, ie Rockefeller, Hunt, Morgan, DuPont, etc.

Nov.4 - Regional Actions. Thursday is seen as Anti-Snack Day. People will move on St. Marks and Second Avenue to expose the true pushers- Thieu, Ky, Nixon, and the CIA.

Nov.5 - Survival Day - Coordinated affinity action with local groups, ie. N.W.O., Operat on Breadbasket, Squatters, Young Lords, to dramatize the lack of Social Services. Demonstrations at Lincoln Hospital, Harlem Welfare Center, Board of Education, and Social Security Offices.

Nov.6 - We will be highly visible at the march through banners, massive leafletting, guerilla theatre and personal contact, in an overwhelming show of unity.

PEOPLES COALITION FOR PEACE & JUSTICE

The Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice is the successor to the New Mobilization Committee Against the War which organized the November 13-15, 1969 March Against Death and mass march and rally in Washington, D.C. It was involved in all of the major spring, 1971 demonstrations, cooperating with the Vietnam Vets in their Washington actions, co-sponsoring with the National Peace Action Coalition (NPAC) the April 24 mass march and rally, and sponsoring the People's Lobby and the first-week-in-May programs. Its fall program has three main parts, two of which (Oct. 13 & Nov. 6) probably will be developed in cooperation with NPAC:

October 13 A nationwide Moratorium around the theme "No Business as Usual". People will stop work in schools, business and hopefully government offices, factories and other places and join in peaceful meetings and demonstrations.

November 6 Mass marches and rallies in selected cities including: New York, Atlanta, Boston, Chicago, Cleveland, Denver, Detroit, Houston, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Seattle, Tampa and Washington, D.C.

In addition, the Peoples Coalition is developing a nonviolent direct action program around the Oct. 4-29 period. So far, two action proposals have been put forth:

One proposal is that each day the number of people being killed daily in Vietnam (300-400), go to the White House from a different U.S. community, fast and vigil for a day, then lie down at the entrance. This would be repeated daily until Thanksgiving or Christmas.

Another proposal is that on October 26 people from all over the country converge to a massive sit-down at the White House. In Washington, groups could start the day with demonstrations at different symbolic points, such as the Vets at Arlington Cemetery, Clergy and Laymen at the Capitol, NWRO at HEW, etc., then parade to the White House and sit down. Everyone might wear black and perhaps have their pockets turned out to symbolize poverty.

A variation of this idea is that on succeeding days the convergence would be on the White House, Capitol and Supreme Court.

A simultaneous and similar West Coast program has been suggested.

The final program may amalgamate all these proposals and others. Your suggestions are welcome.

Three dates then: October 13 - MORATORIUM; October 4-29 - Actions focussing probably on Washington; November 6 - Mass marches and rallies in selected cities.

FOR ACTION LOCALLY ON MORATORIUM DAY

Try to get small businessmen to either close for the day or at least to give 10% of their profits for the day to peace work or social justice campaigns.

Posters are being prepared for store windows of participants. It has been suggested that owner display them (indicating they observe Moratorium Day, and then leave it up to them WHAT they do.

2. Try to get endorsement from official church channels for Moratorium Day.
Have local ministers call attention to Moratorium at services Sunday(s) proceeding Oct. 13.
Use Lincoln's proclamation of National Fast Day as part of liturgy, substituting Oct. 13th as the fast day, Sunday proceeding.
3. Use of CALCAV media--films, video tape, etc.:
Offer free movies, financed by local churches, either in local theatre, churches, schools, etc. to be running all day.
Ask employers to give their people an hr. off to attend the film (this would include students and teachers).
Possibility of getting Veterans against Viet-Nam to be present during showing of films or for discussions that might go on.
4. Encourage parents to request excuses for children to go to Moratorium activities....pointing out the need for their children to be confronted with the moral issues of the war.
Churches might take the responsibility for this.
5. Get local unions involved. If not strike, at least do something different in the shop...wearing arm-bands, luncheon teach-ins, etc.
6. Where sit-ins might be used (Federal buildings, Senator's or Representatives local offices, etc) parents might think of bringing children with them....this leads to a gentler situation and broader coverage in media.
7. Get people to use this day to start their telephone-tax protest. Go to the Telephone Co. personally and make explanation.
8. Get professional people to participate by conducting business "not as usual"....Drs. to give free treatment for the day, etc.
9. Early in Sept. get as broad a group in the community as possible to begin talking about the Moratorium.

SUGGESTIONS FOR CALC NATIONAL OFFICE

- 1.1. Declare a national fast-day. (Oct. 13th)
22. Have American Report feature Moratorium a few times.
3. Develop packets of information on Moratorium for mailings. (Film and other visual materials that might be available, and be prepared for heavy call for these resources.)
Will Ellisberg on Pentagon Papers and Brandmann's speech on tape be ready?)

Have you heard of  This is Campaign No. 8

IT'S AS AMERICAN AS APPLE PIE

(A Campaign To Unsell The War)

Problem: While Nixon talks of "winding down the war" by removing men from Vietnam, too many people tend to overlook the fact that 61% of the tax dollar still goes to the war machine. The Pentagon has asked for a multi-billion dollar increase for the next fiscal year. It is difficult to deal with "the war is ending" mentality, even though polls show that 73% of the people want out of Vietnam. The media isn't being used to unsell the war.

GOALS: 1. For Clergy and Laymen Concerned to build a saturation campaign around how "the big pie" is divided, using the "Apple Pie" commercial of UNSELL, print ads, buttons, etc. (The recent Court of Appeals decision now provides a much better opportunity to get this kind of anti-war commercial onto local TV stations.)

2. To involve National Council of Churches, Bishop's Conference, Jewish Theological Seminary, State Councils of Churches, and local Inter-Faith and ecumenical groups in attempting to get this material on TV, using free public service time. (If this is not granted it could be the basis for legal action against the stations involved.)

3. For CALC to initiate the campaign upon agreement with UNSELL, and make every effort to enlist the cooperation of other groups such as The Business Executives Move For Peace.

CALENDAR:

By September 15th: to form local Task Forces in 20-30 major markets, out of the above groups, who will approach the media in their area.

By October 1st: to hold nationally coordinated press conferences in these cities, announcing plans for the campaign and the appointments with local media executives. (Where free time is not made available, and legal tests do not produce results, fund-raising events would be developed to enable groups to buy time. These could include one-night-a-week fasts, buying ads at Christmas instead of gifts, etc.)

By October 15th: to report on the results of the meetings with the media executives and the schedule of commercials and ads, given free or purchase.

PROBLEM

Ongoing military and economic aid by the United States is making it possible for the West Pakistani military junta to continue its genocide against the people of East Bengal and to suppress their right to self-determination.

SOLUTION

- I. The United States immediately stop all military aid to Pakistan. This includes stopping shipments of arms ordered before March 25.
- II. The United States stop all economic aid to Pakistan until:
 - a. West Pakistani troops are withdrawn from East Bengal so that the safety of the civilian population can be guaranteed;
 - b. civilian rule, based on the elections of December, 1970, is restored and the Bengalis' free exercise of self-determination is assured; and
 - c. East Bengali refugees are allowed to return to their homeland, under international supervision, with all human and property rights restored.
- III. A campaign for massive, immediate, and direct relief to the people of East Bengal be undertaken through international agencies without interference or supervision by the military regime.

STRATEGIES

1. Formulate a massive and immediate educational effort using such vehicles as a national teaching network, a speakers' bureau, development of media such as video tapes and a comprehensive information/action package as a full-scale supplement in American Report.
2. Organize support for the Church/Saxe amendment through activities such as grassroots petition campaign, a large ad in the New York Times and American Report, and liaison with the Bangladesh information center in Washington (lobbying).
3. Encourage and facilitate participation in nonviolent direct action to halt aid shipments to the West Pakistani military junta. Local actions could include:
 - naval blockades of ships carrying aid to Pakistan
 - actions against governmental and corporate agencies involved in aiding and trading with the West Pakistani military junta
 - demonstrations around the country at local federal offices
4. Initiate contact with all existing East Bengal support groups to ensure a full sharing of project information and to eliminate duplication of efforts.
5. Organize broad-based support for these goals through formal liaison with other religious and antiwar groups.

PREAMBLE

AWARE:

1. That the Vietnamese people are the most obvious victims of the war, but also recognizing that there are those in the United States who are similarly affected: the poor, the Blacks, Spanish-speaking Americans, American Indians, other minority groups, and women;
2. That the vested military-corporate power structure of America has ensnared the middle class in its inherent system of racism, exploitation, sexism, and war--a system directed toward profit instead of human welfare;
3. That the middle class has historically served as handmaiden of the vested powers in suppressing the legitimate needs of Blacks, Spanish-speaking Americans, American Indians, and all in the Third World;
4. That the war in Vietnam, all Southeast Asia, Pakistan, at home, and the invisible war being waged throughout the world is an inevitable manifestation of the American power structure.
5. That the middle class will achieve liberation from bondage, and salvation only when they recognize their complicity in the crime of the ruling powers;
6. That the basic problem of the oppressed of this country is the lack of power, both economic and political, of these people.

7. That the Church, as institution, and CALC, are implicated in this overall conspiracy of war, exploitation, and suppression;
8. That the structure of churches and CALC needs to be re-organized and structured so that they may assume their rightful role as a conscience of mankind to turn America around and heaven for human welfare;

GOALS

1. To organize a program for local communities to sponsor independent, full-time organizers, to be chosen by the groups themselves, to work with "grass-roots" organizations involved in action to build a new political base and to redistribute power to the poor and oppressed people of our nation.
2. To confront and educate the middle class and its institutions including the Church in their role in the oppression of the poor and the most exploited.
3. To organize the middle class to relate to the poor and the most exploited on horizontal relationships of dignity.
4. To lead, through this involvement, to an awareness by the middle class of their own oppression.
5. To reorient the priorities of the middle class, so that excess resources may be pooled for human values.
6. To broaden the goals and administrative structure of CALC to include domestic issues, and significant representation of the poor at the most oppressed toward ending the roots and affects of the war at home and all wars abroad.

1. Tie in national and local People's Coalition for Peace and Justice and other local coalitions:
 - A/ Lead Poison Coalition
 - B. United Front (Cairo, Illinois)
 - C. Tenant Unions
 - D. Friends of Welfare Rights Organizations
 - E. Defend Angela Davis Committee
 - F. American Friends Service Committee
 - G. Local Political Defense and Justice Groups
 - H. Local Human and Civil Rights Groups.
2. Sponsor teach ins in churches, schools, colleges, clubs, PTA's, Social Action groups, political groups. Resource people are to be experts in poverty living, the residents of ghettos, poor white areas, (e.g. Appalachians) Indian areas, etc.
3. Supply money and other resources with NO strings attached to:
 - A. Poverty Neighborhood Organizations
 - B. United Front Cairo, Ill.
 - C. Indian and Spanish American Groups.
 - D. United Farm Workers
 - E. Welfare Rights Organizations
 - F. Establish Bail Bond Pools, Jail visiting and court watching.
4. Demonstrate Concern
 - A. Sit ins and/or leafletting of churches.
 - B. Join demonstration of poverty area residents and provide transportation, child care, and other services (bookkeeping, training services, advocate planners, attorneys, etc.)
 - C. Speak out our concern in own neighborhood meetings.
 - D. Encourage national and local peace groups to take active roles in researching, lobbying, and testifying for legislation to improve the dignity and economic situation of the poor and most oppressed.

IMPLEMENTATION OF STRATEGY

DEVELOPMENT OF CALC STRUCTURE

INVISIBLE WAR CAMPAIGN DEVELOPMENT ON CORPORATE INVOLVEMENT

PROBLEM

5 U.S. corporate exploitation of Third World peoples and direct involvement in invisible wars here and abroad reflects the failure of the U.S. church establishment to deal positively with its complicity in that subjugation.

GOALS

To develop year-long study and action projects for local church groups and national denominational groups around four major "corporate criminals" (General Electric, General Motors, Gulf Oil, and Polaroid) in order to expose to, and involve C.A.L.C. folk in, changing those relationships.

SCHEDULE

Fall

1. CALC national office coordinate (build and distribute) information packets for use by local and national church groups on corporate involvement in invisible wars.

- a. information on church investments
- b. research data on corporations
- c. information on resources (films, ads, etc.)
- d. information on organizing skills

2. Local groups schedule workshops and teach-ins and training seminars on the church's investments in the four companies, on local ties to the four companies (local manifestations of the four), doing extensive research, action projects related to the seminars and workshops. (Organizing to around denominational campaigns already going on related to the four companies.)

3. Pulling together local coalition of other groups (peace and related groups) in a coalition in the workshops and training sessions for possible action actions.

Winter

1. Beginning of impetus toward spring proxy fights by the denominations

- a. Reorganizing local financial committees
- b. Securing proxy votes from local groups with stock in the four companies (churches, universities, banks, pension funds, mutual funds, etc.)
- c. Campaigning at local, regional, and national denominational meetings for proxy fights

2. Economic boycott (including Christmas boycott) of the products of the four target companies.

3. Scheduling of a major corporate crimes (in invisible wars as well as visible ones) hearings and testimonies. (This may occur at Christmas time in order to secure P.R. for spring corporate proxy fights, or may occur conjointly with the proxy fights in the spring as a way to get media coverage of the hearings.) These testimonies will be an opportunity to pull together a large coalition of groups. Those testifying can include South Africans, Vietnamese, veterans, welfare mothers, etc.

Spring

1. Proxy fights at the four (and perhaps other) major corporations by denominational bodies, individuals, universities, others around involvement of the corporations in "invisible wars" and exploitation of Third World peoples.

2. Demonstrations (guerrilla theater and other dramatizations) at the proxy meetings. (Possibly the CORPORATE CRIMES testimonies can occur simultaneously with the stockholders meetings if not at Christmas time.)

3. SIMULTANEOUS DIVESTMENT by major denominations of a percentage of the stock hold in these corporations and use of the income off the investment to provide restitution for the victims (Angolans, etc.) and to enable continued support of similar campaigns.

CAMPAIGN ON INVISIBLE WARS

PROBLEM:

The U.S. is increasingly trying to control the Third World through military as well as political, cultural, economic and educational means.

In order to maintain and extend such control, our government has become a government by executive order, which has launched a number of "invisible" wars in Asia, Africa, and Latin America.

Despite democratic ideals and rhetoric, our government has:

- (1) Supported dictatorial military regimes abroad;
- (2) Suppressed liberation struggles;
- (3) Frustrated emerging democracies;

and has kept the facts of these involvements secret from our own people. Responsibility for maintaining this cloak of secrecy is due both to partial reporting and to the public's failure to accept its political responsibility to be informed and to act accordingly.

GOAL:

The actual fact and moral contradiction of such "invisible" wars demand:

- (1) An educational campaign aimed at:

- * making these secret involvements visible;
- * showing how both media and schools are used to perpetuate and conceal these involvements;
- * increasing the public awareness of our individual and corporate complicity.

- (2) Direct action to confront:

- * imbalance of executive power;
- * military and paramilitary aid and training;
- * political complicity of corporate investment;
- * cultural manipulation through educational assumptions and media invasion.

STRATEGIES:

At the time of this writing, the Invisible Wars group was divided into four substantive programmatic groups, each of which is developing suggested campaigns. A separate (but connected) group is working specifically on a campaign directed against our involvement in Bangla Desh. These reports are submitted separately.

This memorandum recommends an airtel be sent to all Special Agents in Charge notifying them of the current plans of antiwar groups to hold demonstrations this fall and to instruct as to the proper reporting of these demonstrations.

BACKGROUND:

The May Day Collective (MDC), Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ), National Peace Action Coalition (NPAC), Vietnam Veterans Against the War (VVAW), Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam, and the Students for a Democratic Society-Worker Student Alliance have recently completed meetings during which their future program of antiwar and other protest activity emerged. While this program cannot be considered hard and fast at the present time, it generally indicates what these groups plan to do in the next two months by way of protest activity.

The above-noted groups currently plan demonstrations as follows:

10/2/71--Demonstrations at Federal prisons at Danbury, Connecticut, San Quentin, California, Lewisburg, Pennsylvania, and Springfield, Missouri, as a "Day of Solidarity with Political Prisoners";

10/4/71--A "Lay-In" at the White House sponsored by Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam to protest the war in Vietnam;

10/13-14/71--A moratorium on business as usual marked by strikes, marches, work stoppages, and other demonstrations;

Memorandum to Mr. E. S. Miller
RE: ANTIWAR DEMONSTRATIONS
FALL, 1971

10/25/71--A demonstration in Washington sponsored by VVAW to protest use of dope;

10/26-29/71--A series of demonstrations sponsored by PCPJ, some of which will be marked by civil disobedience and which will include demonstrations at the Departments of Labor, Health, Education and Welfare, and the Department of Justice.

During these demonstrations there will be demonstrations at the White House: 11/3/71, a national student strike; and on 11/6/71 massive regional demonstrations in major cities throughout the United States, including Washington, D. C., New York, Los Angeles, and San Francisco.

OBSERVATION:

Our responsibility in following the activities of these groups conducting these demonstrations is readily apparent. It will be incumbent upon each of our offices to closely follow the activities of the above-noted organizations and to provide the Bureau with up-to-date information concerning their planned activity. It will also be necessary that we obtain up-to-date information regarding all demonstrations being planned in Washington, particularly as these demonstrations affect Federal agencies in the city.

It is important that informant coverage be developed to cover these demonstrations.

Attached is an airtel to all Special Agents in Charge instructing that the Bureau be promptly and continually advised of information developed and to the necessity for developing informant coverage of groups planning to participate in demonstrations in Washington. In this regard, economy of operations is being specifically pointed out. The field is also being reminded of the possibility of Federal violations occurring during these demonstrations.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the attached airtel be approved and forwarded to the Mechanical Section for reproduction.

Source stated that during the conference, Minister. ~~XUAN THUY~~, leader of the delegation of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam to Paris, met with the group.

According to source, in the summary session the Citizens Conference mutually agreed that they would all return to the United States and attempt to bring pressure on federal lawmakers and State representatives to urge President NIXON to bring the troops home immediately.

On June 29, 1971, NY T-7 advised that CALC was planning to hold a National Organizing Conference in Ann Arbor, Michigan on or about August 17-22, 1971.

According to source, church-oriented activists planned to attend the conference with the long-term aim being the "conversion of the religious community to produce peace and basic social change."

NY T-7 advised on August 3, 1971 that People's Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ) was attempting to organize a conference in connection with the planned conference of CALC in Ann Arbor, Michigan, August 17-22, 1971.

Washington, D.C. and consisting of over 100 organizations which are using massive, non-violent, civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression and war.

NY T-9 advised on August 18, 1971 that a conference sponsored by CALC began on the afternoon of August 17, 1971 at Mary Markley Hall, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan with an estimated 350 persons in attendance.

Source stated that the conference began with the deletion of the organization title words, "About Vietnam." Source stated the deletion was made to broaden their scope of concern to areas other than Vietnam.

Source stated that the conference discussed domestic problems as well as United States involvement in Vietnam. According to source, much discussion was centered on prisons in America. The group concluded that since prisons are governmental institutions the public has a right to information about the operation of prisons and access to prisons.

According to NY T-10, the conference terminated in the late evening of August 21, 1971. Conference was scheduled to conclude on August 22, 1971.

An article appearing in the August 24, 1971 "Daily Worker," an east coast Communist newspaper, stated that the National Conference of Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam voted support for the "Fall Offensive" of the peace movement. According to the article, the "seven-point peace program" presented in Paris by the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam was endorsed by CALC.

CALC further urged President NIXON to set the date for complete withdrawal of all United States soldiers and war material from Indochina, according to article.

It is noted, the DPC has been inactive and defunct since

Subsequent investigation by the Dallas Division

ADMINISTRATIVE

This LHM sets forth information regarding the activities of the Clergy and Laymen Concerned (CALC), aka., Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Viet Nam (CALCAV) in the Cleveland area. This information was obtained through various file reviews plus a discreet preliminary inquiry through established informants and sources.

As shown in the details of this LHM, CALC has had a number of officers during the past few years including is an individual who has been extremely active in civil rights demonstrations and voter registration campaigns in Washington, Alabama and Mississippi in the middle 1960s; he has also been active in draft counseling, peace and anti-war activities, picketing, sit-ins and has worked with black militants. (Cleveland submitted a letter and LHM to the Bureau on December 18, 1968 setting forth his background and activities under the caption

IS - MISCELLANEOUS). activities have not warranted his being recommended for the Security Index as he has never been connected with any subversive groups.

CV 100-29555

As for the other individuals who have been officers of CALC such as [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Cleveland files show these people to be liberal type clergymen or laymen who have been active in the peace and anti Viet Nam War movement; however, none of them have been reported to be connected with any subversive groups or groups that advocate violence.

Based on the information available regarding the CALC in the Cleveland area, it appears that this organization has shown itself to be non-violent in its activities and its purpose is to bring about an end to the war in Viet Nam, plus its concern about such things as welfare and aid to Blacks. There does not appear to be any infiltration, domination or control of the CALC in Cleveland by any basic revolutionary groups or individuals.

Therefore, based on the above, it does not appear that this organization is presently a threat to the security of the United States, and as a result, this case is being closed by Cleveland. If, however, any information is received in the future that CALC in Cleveland has changed its approach, outlook and activities toward violence or affiliation with any subversive type groups, the case will be opened for additional consideration as to further investigation, but the Bureau will be so advised before any additional investigation is instituted.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

On October 15, 1971, Source One and Source Two advised that Clergy and Laymen Concerned (CALC) in Los Angeles, California, is also known as the Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam (CALCV). The Southland Chapter of CALC is actually an ad hoc committee of clergy and laymen [redacted]

MEMBER [redacted] has stated publicly that the CALC is primarily "a paper organization; that is, an informative service with a wide mailing list of interested persons." The CALC is not a membership organization as such but consists of a mailing list which is used to solicit contributions for anti-war work, anti-draft work, for the defense of conscientious objectors and deserters from the military service, and for the expenses of [redacted] in his work as the [redacted] the CALC. The CALC lacks financial support and is generally under-financed.

The PAC is an umbrella organization which coordinates demonstrations and other forms of protests against American involvement in Southeast Asia.

Sources also advised that from time to time the CALC is named as a sponsor, co-sponsor or participating organization in anti-war demonstrations, marches, and rallies, through the auspices of [redacted] when at times no clergyman or laymen representing the CALC is present or if so only one to three at the most. There has been no indication in the Omaha Division that the above captioned organization is organized in the Omaha Division. There has been no literature distributed to indicate captioned organization is active in Iowa or Nebraska nor have informants or sources furnished information to indicate that this organization is engaged in anti-war activities.

A review of the Omaha file indicates that communications from Philadelphia and Indianapolis in March and April set out that three persons from Iowa and one person from Nebraska, two ministers and two lay people, did travel to Paris in March, 1971, with a group sponsored by CLC, American's Friends Service Committee, Fellowship of Reconciliation. Omaha files contain no information concerning these people and no cases were opened on them at that time.

The file also indicates that five clergy persons from Iowa attended the CLC conference at Ann Arbor, Michigan, in August, 1971. Omaha files contain no indication that they have participated in demonstrations or speaking engagements against the war in Vietnam and no cases were opened on them at that time. One case was opened on a student at the University of Nebraska at Lincoln who also attended the conference in Ann Arbor

On September 23, 1971, through a pretext inquiry, the following was learned:

The headquarters of the Boston area CALC is located in the rear of the Eliot Church of Newton, 474 Centre Street, Newton, Massachusetts. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The main function of the organization is to offer "draft counseling" to individuals who seek such assistance. This assistance can be obtained from [REDACTED] at 474 Centre Street, Newton, Massachusetts. In addition to draft counseling assistance, Boston area CALC is also active in support of a lobbying effort in Washington, D.C., to influence draft legislation. Regularly scheduled meetings of the Boston area CALC are not held and the group is loosely organized.

On September 29, 1971, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that he is not familiar with Boston area CALC or [REDACTED]. Source advised that he is familiar with the Eliot Church of Newton, which is located at 474 Centre Street, Newton,

On October 13, 1971, a one-page flier was distributed in Boston at Park Square calling for non-violent action in Washington, D. C., to protest the continuing air war. The flier indicated plans for three hundred people a day to march to the White House to speak for individual Indochinese who would die that day. According to the flier, the date for Boston area people to march to the White House is November 15, 1971. If interested, the flier requested individuals to call Bob Cunnane, Boston CALC, 474 Centre Street, Newton, Massachusetts, telephone 969-7672. The flier indicated the march was sponsored by CALC, Fellowship of Reconciliation, and Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice (PCPJ).

A PCPJ press release dated March 1, 1971, described the PCPJ as being headquartered in Washington, D. C., and consisting of over one hundred organizations which are using massive, non-violent, civil disobedience to combat racism, poverty, repression, and war.

[redacted] also known as [redacted] was arrested on September 24, 1968, along with thirteen other individuals by the Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Police Department. Those arrested allegedly entered the Selective Service local draft boards located at 135 West Wells Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and removed and burned several Selective Service files.

ReBulet, 9/2/71.

No information has been developed indicating that there is a branch of the CALC within the Albuquerque Division.

The files of the Albuquerque Office disclose that according to an article which appeared in the 10/15/69 issue of the "New Mexico Lobo," student newspaper published at the University of New Mexico (UNM), Albuquerque, NM, set forth that on the evening of that date the CALC, would speak at UNM as part of the activity in connection with the October, 1969, Vietnam Moratorium Day. This article also set forth that FRANCE had visited Paris on two occasions earlier in 1969 to talk personally with delegates representing the nations negotiating regarding the war in Vietnam.

According to articles which appeared in the 10/16/69 issues of the "New Mexico Lobo" and the "Albuquerque Tribune," a daily newspaper published in Albuquerque, NM, Reverend FERNANDEZ--in his speech on the evening of 10/15/69--protested U.S. involvement in Southeast Asia and stated that the 10/15/69 Vietnam Moratorium must not end on 10/15/69. Reverend FERNANDEZ urged that the Moratorium be used as a base on which to build additional pressure on the current administration to end the war in Vietnam on ethical, moral, and realistic grounds.

CONCERNED ABOUT VIETNAM

The Buffalo "Courier Express," a Buffalo daily newspaper, in its October 4, 1967 edition contained an article captioned "Anti-Draft Unit Reports Violence."

This article in part stated that Reverend KENNETH EUGENE SHERMAN, a Lutheran Pastor who heads the Steering Committee of Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam (CALCV), commented that Army recruiters have carte blanche to go into public schools but persons peacefully distributing information about conscientious objection and other alternatives to the draft get rough treatment outside Buffalo public high schools. The article quoted SHERMAN as saying that "Dr. Joseph Manch, Superintendent of Buffalo public schools, indicated that the schools as an arm of the government were not in a position to allow students to hear speakers or get information in schools about alternatives to being drafted into military service."

Objectives

An article in "Winnetka Talk," a publication appearing in Winnetka, Illinois, issue of May 4, 1967, concerned activities of the North Shore Committee of Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam. It was reflected that the committee favored deescalation of the war effort by the United States (US), a gradual pull-back of US forces, cessation of the bombing of North Vietnam, and stronger American efforts to start peace talks.

A hand bill concerning a march and rally for peace sponsored by the CALC reflected this admonition, "Bring All the GIs Home Now!"

[CG T-5, 4/27/71] ~~C~~

Activities

"Winnetka Talk," a publication of Winnetka, Illinois, issue of May 25, 1967, page 35, carried an advertisement sponsored by the North Shore Committee of Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam. An appeal was made for contributions, "If you are disturbed by our national policy towards the Vietnamese War and would like to express your disapproval democratically. . . ."

"Winnetka Talk," issue of May 4, 1967, reflected that the North Shore Committee of Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam planned to expand their efforts and had held a meeting the previous week in Highland Park, Illinois, attended by 150 persons. A letter dated May 17, 1968, announced that the Chicago Area Draft Resisters (CADRE), in conjunction with the Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam, the CPC and several other peace groups would hold a demonstration in Chicago on May 22, 1968. The demonstration would be held at the Federal Building in Chicago in support of two individuals being prosecuted for conspiracy to violate Selective Service laws. The letter further advised that it was the intention of the demonstrating organizations to have trained monitors present to insure that entrance to the building is undisturbed and that if any problems arose it was hoped that the leaders of the demonstration and the Federal Marshals would be asked to clear up those problems.

(CG T-6, 5/18/68) ~~C~~

(U)

CADRE

CADRE is an anti-war, anti-draft organization which has operated in the Chicago, Illinois, area.

The CALC was one of several pacifist and anti-war groups which planned to conduct a 24 hour vigil in Lincoln Park, Chicago, from 4 p.m., May 29, 1969, to 4 p.m., May 30, 1969. Names of persons killed in Vietnam were to be read allowed.

(U)

(CG T-7, 5/26/69) ~~C~~

An anti-war demonstration was held by the CALC on April 9, 1971, in the form of a religious ceremony at Chicago Police Headquarters, 1121 South State Street. There were 14 persons in the demonstration. While at police headquarters the members of the group led prayers, burned incense, and carried picket signs. They departed about 10:30 a.m.

(CG T-7, 4/12/71) ~~C~~

On April 9, 1971, an SA of the FBI observed approximately 15 persons at the Federal Building, Chicago, hold a prayer vigil. At 4:15 the same group moved to the Chicago Civic Center where they held a prayer vigil. The group was sponsored by the CALC and the CPC.

An anti-tax demonstration was held at the Chicago Civic Center on April 15, 1971, under the sponsorship of the CALC. Approximately 40 persons gathered to hear [redacted] speak about the necessity to no longer pay taxes to the Illinois

Bell Telephone Company. He urged everyone not to pay taxes as these are used to support the military establishment. Father Hogan was frequently heckled.

(CG T-7, 4/16/71)

(U) The CALC held a demonstration starting at 1 p.m. on April 24, 1971, at the Third Unitarian Church, 301 North Mayfield, Chicago. Some of the demonstrators carried signs reading, "Bring the Troops Home Now," and "End the War Now." The demonstrators marched west on Lake Street going through Oak Park, Illinois, and they terminated at St. Luke's Catholic Church, 7500 West Lake Street, River Forest, where a rally was held in the church. This demonstration was observed by an SA of the FBI. Information concerning the rally was reflected in the "Chicago Tribune," issue of April 25, 1971, section one, page two. It was shown that about 550 persons had gathered at St. Luke's Catholic Church at the conclusion of the march from the Third Unitarian Church. Identity of the sponsoring group was not shown in the newspaper article.

(U) A flyer obtained on May 24, 1971, reflected that the CALC, 542 South Dearborn, Room 143, would lobby at various local Selective Service offices on June 1, 1971. The following was reflected in part: "SELECTIVE SERVICE EMPLOYEES ARE PRISONERS OF WAR. LET'S RELEASE THEM FOR ACTIVE DUTY IN: HOSPITALS, DAY NURSERIES, SCHOOLS, WELFARE OFFICES, UNION ORGANIZATION, LIFE GIVING BUSINESSES, AND MANUFACTURING CENTERS." Thereafter were shown the addresses of Selective Service offices in Chicago, Evanston, Waukegan, Des Plaines, St. Charles, Wheaton, Forest Park, Berwyn, Harvey, Joliet, and Hammond, Indiana.

(U) (CG T-8, 5/24/71)

On June 1, 1971, five individuals between the ages of 18 and 23 were arrested in front of the Selective Service office located at 912 Chicago Avenue, Evanston, Illinois, when they obstructed the public sidewalk. The arrests were made at 8:15 a.m. and those arrested were among a group of approximately 20 demonstrators who picketed in front of the Selective Service office.

(CG T-9, 6/1/71)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

(U) CLERGY AND LAYMEN CONCERNED, ALSO KNOWN AS ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
CLERGY AND LAYMEN CONCERNED ABOUT VIETNAM

There were no additional reported arrests on June 1, 1971, in connection with CALC demonstrations at Selective Service offices.

The CALC was to be a sponsor, along with the CPC and other organizations, in a peace picnic scheduled for July 4, 1971, in Lincoln Park. This information was reflected on a flyer obtained July 1, 1971.

(CG T-2, 7/1/71) ~~C~~

The CALC planned to have a meeting on the west side of Chicago on October 3, 1971, at 4 p.m. The object was to revitalize the CALC on the west side and the meeting was to be held at the Unitarian Universalist Church, Oak Park, Illinois. Items on the agenda included the following: Sponsoring radio and TV peace ads; sponsoring a draft counseling service in high school; sending a CALC representative to Vietnam; developing a community peace college, and forming a study program for mothers of draft age sons.

(U) (U) (CG T-5, 9/29/71) ~~C~~

Literature was obtained at the CALC office in August, 1971, for a mailing sent by the Illinois Communist Party, USA (CPUSA). One item concerned the anniversary of the bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki. ~~C~~

(U) (CG T-1, 8/18/71) ~~C~~

Confidential informants familiar with some phases of Illinois CPUSA and Socialist Workers Party (SWP), activities in the Chicago area were contacted in October and November, 1971. They advised that they had no information indicating the CALC in Chicago was dominated or controlled by either the CPUSA or by the SWP or by violence-prone elements.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

DAILY DEATH TOLL PROJECT SPONSORED BY THE WAR RESISTERS LEAGUE, FELLOW-
SHIP OF RECONCILIATION, AND THE CLERGY
AND LAYMEN CONCERNED, WASHINGTON, D.C.,
NOVEMBER 8-25, 1971

On November 15, 1971, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised as follows:

Between 9:30 p.m., and 11:00 p.m., on November 11, 1971, approximately 125 persons gathered at the First Methodist Church, East 30th Street and Euclid Street, Cleveland, Ohio, for a "memorial service" in conjunction with the Daily Death Toll Project (DDTP) sponsored by the War Resisters League, Fellowship of Reconciliation and the Clergy and Laymen Concerned.

WAR RESISTERS LEAGUE (WRL)

The WRL is a national organization headquartered in New York City which espouses anti-Vietnam war and anti-draft resistance.

FELLOWSHIP OF RECONCILIATION (FOR)

The FOR is a nationally known Quaker organization.

CLERGY AND LAYMEN CONCERNED (CALC)

The CALC is described by the above source as a group of clergy and laymen who have in the past concerned themselves with the Vietnam War, and recently have been active in matters other than the Vietnam War, including racism, prison reform, social and religious reform.

The "memorial service" consisted of short speeches by individuals who were going to Washington, D.C., immediately after the service to engage in planned civil disobedience in front of the White House on November 12th as part of the DDTP. These speeches related each individual's reasons for participating in this type of civil disobedience.

At 11:00 p.m., the service terminated and, due to the fact there were not enough people to go by bus, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
Cleveland, Ohio, directed the approximately 35 persons going to Washington, D. C., into seven automobiles for the trip.

Persons arriving in Washington, D. C., for the DDTP before 5:30 a.m., were to go to Saint Steven's Church, 16th and Newton Streets, and those arriving after 5:30 a.m., were to go directly to the Church of the Reformation, 212 East Capitol Street, Washington, D. C.

At 9:00 a.m., on November 12, 1971, there was a general orientation meeting held at the Church of the Reformation regarding how to engage in non-violent civil disobedience. Approximately 85 persons from Cleveland, Ohio; Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Kent, Ohio, and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, attended this meeting and participated in the DDTP demonstration.

During the meeting, the basic idea conveyed was the need to reach the "media," so that more and more people would be mobilized for civil disobedience. The propaganda part of the DDTP was highly stressed. Also, the "gentle," non-violent kind of protest can be most effective if there are "martyrs," so they can affect people's consciousness through their "gentle" actions of protest, and eventually, effect a social change in the United States.

The orientation meeting terminated at 11:00 a.m., and a small number of participants went to the U.S. Capitol Building to lobby with their congressmen for total withdrawal of all United States troops from Indochina.

At the United States Capitol Building, Congressman CHARLES VANIK of Ohio came out to speak to the group, stating he always voted against war, and everything is coming to an end in Vietnam now. [redacted] of Cleveland, Ohio, told Congressman VANIK that this was not enough and what VANIK said was a lie. [redacted] stated that civil disobedience was necessary but Congressman VANIK disagreed with him.

At 1:15 p.m., the approximately 85 participants gathered on the east steps of the Capitol Building and put on their paper "Vietnamese" hats. Some of those present painted their faces.

At about 2:00 p.m., the demonstrators commenced a march to the White House via Constitution and Pennsylvania Avenues arriving at the White House shortly before 3:00 p.m.

After fifteen minutes of demonstrating in front of the White House, those planning to be arrested laid down by the entrance gate and were thereafter placed under arrest. About twenty participants chose not to be arrested and did not participate with the "Jay-in."

The Cleveland, Ohio, area participants departed Washington, D.C., in their automobiles after bailing out of jail those who chose to be arrested.

CLERGY AND LAYMEN CONCERNED
(CALC), Also Known As,
Clergy and Laymen Concerned
About Vietnam

On November 16, 1971, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that there is no known organized active Clergy and Laymen Concerned (CALC) or Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam (CLCV) group in the Pittsburgh area; however, there are a number of clergy and laymen who support activities sponsored by this group in other areas. Source said there is no known formal membership, meetings, or offices for either of these groups in the Pittsburgh area.

Other confidential informants and sources familiar with some phases of Communist Party and New Left activities in the Western Pennsylvania area could furnish no information concerning captioned group when contacted during October and November, 1971.

On August 10, 1967, a second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, provided a list of individuals and/or organizations which have either become members of the National Conference For New Politics, contributed money to it, or will attend the convention to be held in Chicago on August 29 - September 24, 1967, as delegates or observers. CLCV was among the organizations contained on this list. Under this organization, the following were listed as contacts:

The May 24, 1969, edition of "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette," a daily Pittsburgh, Pa., newspaper, contained an article entitled, "Area Clergy Joining South Viet Protest," which reported that 22 Pittsburgh area clergymen were joining about 4,000 others across the nation for support of a petition to be sent to President Nixon calling on him to "cease supporting a Government in South Vietnam that practices religious persecution."

The article also reported that the petition was being distributed by the National Council of Churches and several denominations and organizations. The sponsors, CLCV, headquartered in New York City, hope to collect 10,000 signatures on a petition.

The May 26, 1970, edition of "Pittsburgh Post-Gazette," contained an article entitled, "Clergy Going to D.C. Protest," which reported that approximately 50 clergymen and laymen from the Pittsburgh area would attend a national emergency mobilization in Washington, D. C., that date, sponsored by CALC.

CLERGY AND LAYMEN CONCERNED (CALC), Also Known As,
Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam

On November 10, 1971, a third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that about 45 people from the Pittsburgh area were expected to travel to Washington, D. C., on November 11, 1971, to participate in a program on November 12, 1971, called "Daily Death Toll Project." This project sponsored by War Resistor League, Fellowship of Reconciliation, and CALC called for protestors to lay prostrate in front of the White House to symbolize the estimated 300 daily deaths resulting from the Vietnam War. The protest is a nationally-organized movement scheduled to begin November 8, 1971, and continue through Thanksgiving with different cities represented each day.
